ISSUE SPECIFIC SUMMARY OF THE CERTIFICATES

Summaries are made up of disclosure requirements known as “Elements”. These elements are numbered in Sections A to E (A.1 to E.7). This summary contains all the Elements required to be included in a summary for the Certificates and the Issuer. Because some Elements are not required to be addressed, there may be gaps in the numbering sequence of the Elements. Even though an Element may be required to be inserted in a summary because of the nature of the Certificates and the Issuer, it is possible that no relevant information can be given regarding the Element. In this case, a short description of the Element should be included in the summary with the mention of “Not Applicable”.

Section B - Issuer

| Element | Title | |
|-------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| B.1 | Legal and commercial name of the Issuer | ING Bank N.V. (the " Issuer ") |
| B.2 | The domicile and legal form of the Issuer, the legislation under which the Issuer operates and its country of incorporation | The Issuer is a public limited company (naamloze vennootschap) incorporated under the laws of The Netherlands on 12 November 1927, with its corporate seat (statutaire zetel) in Amsterdam, The Netherlands. |
| B.4b | A description of any known trends affecting the Issuer and the industries in which it operates | The results of operations of the Issuer are affected by demographics and by a variety of market conditions, including economic cycles, banking industry cycles and fluctuations in stock markets, interest and foreign exchange rates, political developments and client behaviour changes. In 2013, the external environment continued to have an impact on the Issuer as austerity measures prevailed in the Eurozone and gross domestic product growth stagnated across the European Union. While the economic conditions in the Eurozone improved in the second quarter of 2013 with positive gross domestic product growth and one major risk – a catastrophic break-up of the Eurozone – greatly diminished in 2013, the threat of a prolonged low interest rate environment increased when the European Central Bank announced in November 2013 a further interest rate cut to a record low. While economic growth is recovering slowly, global equity markets performed strongly in 2013. However, in emerging market economies, equity indices were impacted by amongst others, the reduction of expansive monetary stimulus by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. The operations of the Issuer are exposed to fluctuations in equity markets. The Issuer maintains an internationally diversified and mainly client-related trading portfolio. Accordingly, market downturns are likely to lead to declines in securities trading and brokerage activities which it executes for customers and therefore to a decline in related commissions and trading results. In addition to this, the Issuer also maintains equity investments in its own non-trading books. Fluctuations in equity markets may affect the value of these investments. The operations of the Issuer are exposed to fluctuations in interest rates. The Issuer's management of interest rate sensitivity affects its results of operations. Interest rate sensitivity refers to the relationship between changes in market interest rates on the one hand and future interest earnings and economic value of its underlying banking portfolios on the other hand. Both the composition of the Issuer's assets and liabilities and the fact that interest rate changes may affect client behaviour in a different way than assumed in the Issuer's internal models may result in a mismatch which causes the banking longer term operations' net interest income and trading results to be affected by changes in interest rates. The Issuer is exposed to fluctuations in exchange rates. The Issuer's management of exchange rate sensitivity affects its results of operations through the trading activities for its own account and because the Issuer prepares and publishes its consolidated financial statements in Euros. Because a substantial portion of the Issuer's income and expenses is denominated in currencies other than Euros, fluctuations in the exchange rates used to |

| | | translate foreign currencies into Euros will impact its reported results of operations and cash flows from year to year. This exposure is mitigated by the fact that realised results in non-euro currencies are translated into Euros by monthly hedging. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |

| C.10 | If the security has a derivative component, an explanation of how the value of the investment is affected by the value of the underlying instrument | The Certificates are Short Certificates. “Short Certificates” are certificates that are designed to enable the investor to profit from declining markets by tracking the Underlying in an inverse manner. Short Certificates are designed to enable the investor to profit from declining markets. Short Certificates track the Underlying in an inverse manner. If the value of the Underlying drops, the value of the Short Certificate is also expected to rise, subject to the cost of financing provided by the Issuer, movements in any applicable foreign exchange rate and any expenses. The difference between a Short Certificate and an ordinary certificate is that in the case of a Short Certificate, the amount needed to invest to give the same inverse participation rate in the Underlying is usually considerably less. |
| C.11 | Application for admission to trading and distribution in a regulated market | Application is expected to be made by the Issuer (or on its behalf) for the Certificates to be admitted to trading on Euronext Paris with effect from 26 January 2015 |
| C.15 | Description of how the value of the investment is affected by the value of the underlying instrument(s) | Certificates track the Underlying in a linear manner on an open ended basis. The amount needed to invest in a Certificate to give the same participation rate in the Underlying as a direct investment in the Underlying is considerably less. Therefore, the percentage gain if the Underlying falls and the percentage loss if the Underlying rises, is higher in Certificates than in a direct investment in the Underlying. |
| C.16 | The expiration or maturity date of the derivative securities | The Certificates are open ended investment instruments without a fixed maturity or expiration date, which can be exercised by Certificateholders on an exercise date on notice. The Certificates can be terminated by the Issuer upon notice and may automatically terminate following a Stop Loss Event. |

Following a Stop Loss Event, Certificateholders will receive zero return on the Certificates. |
| C.19 | Final reference price of the underlying | The final reference price of the Underlying shall be an amount equal to the value of the Underlying on the relevant valuation date, determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to a publicly available source. |

| D.2 | Key information on key risks that are specific to the Issuer or its industry | Because the Issuer is part of a financial services company conducting business on a global basis, the revenues and earnings of the Issuer are affected by the volatility and strength of the economic, business and capital markets environments specific to the geographic regions in which it conducts business. The ongoing turbulence and volatility of such factors have adversely affected, and may continue to adversely affect the profitability and solvency of the Issuer. The Issuer has identified a number of specific factors which could adversely affect its business and ability to make payments due under the Certificates. These factors include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● adverse capital and credit market conditions ● the default of a major market participant ● changes in financial services laws and/or regulations ● continued risk of resurgence of turbulence and ongoing volatility in the financial markets and the economy generally ● inability to increase or maintain market share ● inability of counterparties to meet their financial obligations ● market conditions and increased risk of loan impairments ● interest rate volatility and other interest rate changes ● failures of banks falling under the scope of state compensation schemes ● sustained increase in inflation ● inability to manage risks successfully through derivatives ● inability to retain key personnel ● inability to protect intellectual property and possibility to be subject to infringement claims ● deficiencies in assumptions used to model client behaviour for market risk calculations ● liabilities incurred in respect of defined benefit retirement plans ● inadequacy of risk management policies and guidelines ● regulatory risks ● mis-selling claims ● ratings downgrades or potential downgrades ● operational risks such as systems disruptions or failures, breaches of security, cyber attacks, human error, changes in operational practices or inadequate controls ● adverse publicity, claims and allegations, litigation and regulatory investigations and sanctions ● implementation of ING's Restructuring Plan ● EC imposed limitations on ING ● competitive and other disadvantages resulting from the Restructuring Plan ● failure to achieve intended reductions in costs, risk and leverage under Restructuring Plan ● potential imposition of additional behavioural constraints by the EC in respect of remaining Core Tier 1 securities. |

Investors in the Certificates should be aware that their entire investment may be lost if the Underlying is at an unfavourable level upon exercise or termination, as the case may be. ● A feature of the Certificates is the stop-loss which, if breached, will result in the early termination of the Certificates. If the value of the Underlying drops, the value of the short Certificate is expected to rise, subject to the cost of financing provided by the Issuer, movements in any applicable foreign exchange rate and any expenses. ● There may not be a secondary market in the Certificates. As a consequence, liquidity in the Certificates should be considered as a risk. In the event that such a secondary market does not develop, an investor selling the Certificates is unlikely to be able to sell its Certificates or at prices that will provide him with a yield comparable to similar investments that have developed a secondary market. ● The Issuer and/or its affiliates may enter into transactions or carry out other activities in relation to the Underlying which may affect the market price, liquidity or value of the Underlying and/or the Certificates in a way which could be adverse to the interest of the Certificateholders. ● The Certificates convey no interest in the Underlying to the investors. The Issuer may choose not to hold the Underlying or any derivative contracts linked to the Underlying. ● The Calculation Agent may make adjustments as a result of certain corporate actions affecting the Underlying. In making such adjustments, the Calculation Agent is entitled to exercise substantial discretion and may be subject to conflicts of interest. ● Certificates not exercised in accordance with the Conditions will (where exercise is required) expire worthless. ● The Issuer may elect to cancel the Certificates early should U.S. withholding tax apply to any current or future payments on the Certificates. ● The Issuer may terminate the Certificates early if it determines that the performance of its obligations under the Certificates or that maintaining its hedging arrangement (if any) is no longer legal or practical in whole or in part for any reason. ● Credit ratings assigned to the Certificates may not reflect the potential impact of all the risks that may affect the value of the Certificates. ● The investment activities of investors may be restricted by legal investment laws and regulations, or by the review or regulation by certain authorities. ● Under certain circumstances the Issuer may make modifications to the Certificates without the consent of the Certificateholders which may affect the Certificateholders’ interest. ● Expenses may be payable by investors. ● The holders may not receive payment of the full amounts due in respect of the Certificates as a result of amounts being withheld by the Issuer in order to comply with applicable laws. |
| D.6 | Risk warning that investors may lose value of entire investment or part of it | The capital invested in the Certificates is at risk. Consequently, the amount a prospective investor may receive on redemption of its Certificates may be less than the amount invested by it and may be zero. Investors will lose up to the entire value of their investment if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the investor sells its Certificates prior to the scheduled redemption in the secondary market at an amount that is less than the initial purchase price; (b) the Issuer is subject to insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings or |

| B.1 | Raison sociale et nom commercial de l'Émetteur | ING Bank N.V. (l' "Émetteur") |
| B.2 | Siège social et forme juridique de l'Émetteur, la législation régissant son activité ainsi que son pays dans lequel il est constitué | L'Émetteur est une société anonyme (naamloze vennootschap) constituée en vertu du droit des Pays-Bas le 12 novembre 1927, ayant son siège social (statutaire zetel) à Amsterdam, aux Pays-Bas. |
| B.4b | Description des tendances connues ayant une influence sur l'Émetteur et secteurs dans lesquels il opère | Les résultats d'exploitation de l'Émetteur sont affectés par la démographie et par une variété de conditions de marché, y compris les cycles économiques, les cycles de l'industrie bancaire et par les fluctuations des marchés boursiers, des taux d'intérêts et des taux de change, les évolutions politiques et les changements de comportement des clients. En 2013, l'environnement extérieur a continué à influencer l'Émetteur avec les mesures d'austérité qui ont dominé en zone euro et la croissance du produit intérieur brut qui a stagné au sein de l'Union Européenne. Tandis que l'environnement économique de la zone euro s'est amélioré au cours du second trimestre 2013 avec une croissance du produit intérieur brut positive et le risque important d'éclatement de la zone euro qui a considérablement diminué en 2013, la menace d'un environnement de taux bas prolongé s'est renforcée avec l'annonce par la Banque Centrale Européenne, au mois de novembre 2013, d'une nouvelle baisse des taux à un seuil historique. Alors que la croissance économique reprend lentement, les marchés boursiers mondiaux ont connu de solides performances en 2013. Cependant, dans les marchés émergents, les indices boursiers ont été touchés, entre autre, par la baisse de la politique monétaire expansionniste du Conseil des Gouverneurs de la Réserve Fédérale des États-Unis. Les opérations de l'Émetteur sont exposées aux fluctuations des marchés actions. L'Émetteur maintient un portefeuille de négociation principalement lié aux clients et diversifié internationalement. En conséquence, les replis du marché sont susceptibles de conduire à des diminutions des activités de négoce de titres et les activités de courtage que l'Émetteur exécute pour les clients et, par conséquent, à une baisse des commissions liées et des résultats de négoce. En outre, l'Émetteur maintient également des investissements en actions dans son propre portefeuille d'opérations autres que de négociation. Les fluctuations des marchés d'actions peuvent influencer la valeur de ces investissements. Les opérations de l'Émetteur sont exposées aux fluctuations des taux d'intérêt. La gestion par l'Émetteur de la sensibilité aux taux d'intérêt influence son résultat d'exploitation. La sensibilité aux taux d'intérêt fait référence à la relation entre les variations de taux d'intérêt du marché d'une part et les revenus d'intérêts futurs et la valeur économique de ses portefeuilles bancaires sous-jacents, d'autre part. Tant la composition des actif et du passif de l'Émetteur que le fait que les variations de taux d'intérêt peuvent influencer le comportement des clients d'une manière différente que supposée dans les modèles internes de l'Émetteur et peuvent entraîner un déséquilibre qui aboutit à la situation où les revenus nets d'intérêts des |

La gestion par l'Émetteur de la sensibilité aux taux de change influence les résultats d'exploitation en raison des activités de négociation pour compte propre et parce que l'Émetteur prépare et publie ses comptes consolidés en euros. Étant donné qu'une partie significative des revenus et des dépenses de l'Émetteur est libellée en devises autres que l'euro, les fluctuations des taux de change utilisés pour convertir les devises étrangères en euros auront un impact sur les résultats d'exploitation rapportés et les flux de trésorerie d'année en année. Cette exposition est atténuée par le fait que les résultats réalisés en devises autres que l'euro sont convertis en euros par une couverture mensuelle. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |

| B.5 | Description du groupe de l'Émetteur et position de l'Émetteur au sein du groupe | L'Émetteur fait partie d'ING Groep N.V. (" ING Groupe "). ING Groupe est la société holding d'un large éventail de sociétés (l'ensemble désigné comme " ING ") offrant des services bancaires, de placements, d'assurance-vie et de retraite pour répondre aux besoins d'une large base de clientèle. L'Émetteur est une filiale non cotée entièrement détenue par ING Groupe et offre actuellement des services de Banque de Détails à des personnes physiques ainsi qu'à des petites et moyennes entreprises en Europe, en Asie et en Australie et des services de Banque Commerciale à des clients dans le monde entier, y compris des entreprises multinationales, des gouvernements, des institutions financières et des organisations supranationales. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |

| propres aux Certificats | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● L'Émetteur peut résilier les Certificats qui peuvent être résiliés automatiquement si le Sous-jacent atteint un niveau pré-déterminé. Les Investisseurs dans les Certificats doivent être conscients que la totalité de leur investissement peut être perdu si le Sous-jacent est à un niveau défavorable lors de l'exercice ou de la réalisation, selon le cas. ● Dans le cas de Certificats, suite à la survenance d'un tel Événement de Limitation des Pertes, le montant en numéraire reçu par un Titulaire sera toujours égal à zéro. ● Les Certificats sont des Certificats Courts qui entraînent des risques particuliers. Les "Certificats Courts" sont des certificats dont la structure vise à permettre à l'investisseur de profiter de la baisse des marchés. Ils répliquent inversement les variations du cours du Sous-jacent. Si la valeur du Sous-jacent diminue, celle du Certificat Court augmentera, sous réserve des coûts de financement de l'Émetteur, mais aussi en tenant compte de la variation du taux de change applicable et de tout autre frais. ● Il ne peut être exclu qu'aucun marché secondaire n'existe pour les Certificats. Par conséquent, la liquidité des Certificats est un risque à prendre en compte également. Dans l'éventualité où aucun marché secondaire des Certificats ne se développe, il est peu probable qu'un investisseur envisageant de vendre ses Certificats puisse être en mesure de le faire, ou qu'il puisse le faire à un prix comparable au rendement auquel il aurait pu s'attendre en présence d'un marché secondaire. ● L'Émetteur et/ou ses filiales peuvent conclure des opérations ou mener d'autres activités en relation avec le Sous-jacent qui peuvent affecter le prix de marché, la liquidité ou la valeur du Sous-jacent et/ou les Certificats d'une manière qui pourrait être contraire à l'intérêt des Titulaires. ● Les Certificats ne donnent pas accès à une participation dans le Sous-jacent. L'Émetteur pourra choisir de ne pas détenir le Sous-jacent, ni d'éventuels contrats dérivés relatifs au Sous-jacent. ● L'Agent de Calcul pourra procéder à des ajustements à la suite d'opérations affectant le Sous-jacent. Ces ajustements pourront être à l'entière discrétion de l'Agent de Calcul et peuvent donner lieu à des conflits d'intérêts. ● Les Certificats qui ne seraient pas exercés conformément aux Conditions d'exercice prévues pourront (dès lors que leur exercice est requis) perdre toute valeur. ● L'Émetteur peut décider de procéder à la résiliation anticipée des Certificats si des retenues à la source américaines devaient s'appliquer à des paiements présents ou futurs au titre des Certificats. ● L'Émetteur peut décider de procéder à la résiliation anticipée des Certificats s'il estime que ses obligations au titre des Certificats ou le maintien de sa couverture (le cas échéant) s'avèrent constituer en tout ou partie une infraction à la loi ou être non pertinents, pour quelque raison que ce soit. ● La notation des Certificats peut ne pas refléter l'impact potentiel de l'ensemble des risques qui pourraient affecter la valeur du Certificat. ● Les activités d'investissement peuvent être restreintes par les dispositions légales en matière d'investissement, et par le contrôle ou la réglementation de certaines autorités. ● Dans certaines circonstances, l'Émetteur peut modifier les modalités des Certificats sans l'accord des Titulaires. Ces modifications pourraient porter atteinte aux intérêts des Titulaires. ● Des dépenses peuvent être mises à la charge des investisseurs. ● Les titulaires peuvent ne pas recevoir le paiement de la totalité des |
