

Solucom takes over Eveho and strengthens its position in management consulting in the insurance sector

Solucom is continuing its development in management consulting and is announcing the acquisition of the consulting firm Eveho.

Eveho, a specialist in the transformation of insurance companies

Eveho is a firm offering consulting services in organisation and management, specialising in the insurance sector and comprising Eveho Conseil (consulting) and two subsidiaries, Eveho Actuariat (actuarial) and Eveho Services.

Its role is to assist the players in this sector in scoping and implementing their transformation projects. Eveho's multidisciplinary teams combine insurance expertise with skills in organisation, management and information systems.

Eveho also carries out assignments for insurance companies, bancassurance companies, mutual insurers and social protection groups covering all their businesses - insurance, loss, health, life, pensions and provident cover.

Founded in 2005 and comprising more than 30 staff, Eveho achieved sales revenues of over €3.5m in 2011.

Solucom acquires a first-rank position with principals in the insurance business

Under the terms of this deal, Solucom has acquired 100% of the capital of Eveho Conseil and of its two subsidiaries. The transaction was entirely financed in cash.

Eveho will be consolidated as of 1 April 2012 in Solucom's financial statements, which means the entire 2012/13 financial year.

"This acquisition expresses Eveho's intent to develop its brand and to become an indispensable partner for its clients for assignments with the greatest stakes, and for their large-scale projects. We are convinced that Solucom's know-how in the management of large transformation projects will allow us to fulfil this ambition" explains Stéphane Arbus, founding partner of Eveho.

"This acquisition, in line with our Solucom 2015 strategic plan, reinforces the development initiated with the Alturia Consulting acquisition announced last week," states Pascal Imbert, CEO of Solucom. "Eveho advances our position with the principals in the insurance world, with the ambition of playing a first-rank role in the reorganisations in this sector."

Upcoming date: turnover for the 2011/12 financial year on 9 May 2012 (after close of trading).
