

Proposed appointment of Amaury de Botmiliau as a member of CYBERGUN Board of Directors

Cybergun, the world leader in recreational shooting, hereby announces the proposed appointment of Mr. Amaury de Botmiliau as one of the Directors of Cybergun Board. Mr de Botmiliau would replace Eric Gruau.

Amaury de Botmiliau, who now holds 24.34% of Cybergun's shares, wants to support the group's strategy in the long term. He announced his intention to make new purchases of Securities, in a statement published today on the website of the AMF.

On the occasion of this announcement, Jérôme Marsac, Chairman of the board and Founder of Cybergun, said: " The addition of Amaury de Botmiliau to the board would be a real asset to the group. He has extensive experience in business law, (skills which he also generously makes available to the city of Nantes), combined with a sense of anticipation, thus providing new talent on the Board of Directors of Cybergun."

The proposal for Amaury de Botmiliau to join Cybergun's board will be submitted at the coming Board of Directors meeting on October 16th, and ratified at next Annual General shareholders' meeting of the Group.
