Commenting on these results, Stéphane Magnan, CEO of Montupet, said: “This publication, which yet again shows stronger growth in turnover than that of the general automotive market, highlights the favorable and durable fundamentals that the Montupet Group enjoys. The visibility conferred by our order books confirms that there are medium and long term perspectives for continued growth in turnover and profit. In this context, we expect 2015 to be another excellent year, especially with the expected pickup of activity at our plant in Mexico.”
