PRESS RELEASE

OL SIGNS LÉO DUBOIS AND TERMINATES CLÉMENT GRENIER'S CONTRACT

Lyon, 31 January 2018

Olympique Lyonnais is very pleased to announce that Léo Dubois has signed with the club until 2022.

The 23-year-old right back from FC Nantes will be a free agent at the end of the year and has signed a four-year contract that will take effect on 1 July 2018.

Léo Dubois has been selected twice for the France "Espoir" team. He is now in his fourth Ligue 1 season at Nantes, where he has played in 90 matches, all competitions combined.

Coming after Martin Terrier and Oumar Solet, Léo Dubois' arrival is another step in OL's strategy to prepare for the future by bringing in young, promising French footballers.

Florian Maurice said, "Léo is a versatile fullback who is having a very good season in Nantes. He has all of the qualities he needs to fit in with OL's style of play. He knows how to play hard and has a very healthy state of mind."

Olympique Lyonnais has terminated, by mutual agreement, its contract with Clément Grenier. His contract was to expire on 30 June 2018, and Clément will now be free to sign with Guingamp. Olympique Lyonnais would like to thank Clément for all he has done for the team since he joined the OL Academy in 2002 and wishes him every success for the continuation of his career.
