

TRACTIAL ANNOUNCES ITS PARTICIPATION AS A PARTNER OF THE POLYNESIAN ISLANDS CRYPTO SUMMIT 2026 (PICS²)

TRACTIAL announces its participation as a partner of the Polynesian Islands Crypto Summit 2026 (PICS²), one of the leading events dedicated to blockchain technologies, Web3, and digital financial infrastructures in the Pacific region.

The event will take place from May 22 to 24, 2026, in Tahiti, and is expected to bring together several thousand participants, including international crypto and fintech companies, as well as institutions and economic stakeholders from across the region.

PICS²: AN INTERNATIONAL WEB3 GATHERING

Organized with the support of the authorities of French Polynesia, the Polynesian Islands Crypto Summit aims to position Tahiti as an international meeting point for Web3, fintech, and blockchain players. The 2026 edition is expected to host:

- over 5,000 attendees
- more than 100 international companies and exhibitors
- around 40 speakers and experts

The program will include conferences, workshops, and exhibition spaces focused on financial and technological innovation. Discussions will notably cover:

- the evolution of blockchain infrastructures
- the rise of stablecoins
- the integration of Web3 technologies into the real economy

TRACTIAL: BRIDGING EURO PAYMENTS AND BLOCKCHAIN

On this occasion, TRACTIAL will present its vision of a financial infrastructure bridging traditional payment systems and blockchain networks.

The Company is developing a fintech-as-a-service architecture enabling digital platforms to seamlessly integrate financial services combining:

- euro-denominated payment accounts
- self-custodied crypto wallets
- conversion into euro-denominated stablecoins via API

This approach is designed to simplify the integration of Web3 technologies for digital platforms, while allowing users to retain full control over their digital assets.

TRACTIAL is thus positioning itself as a bridge between traditional finance and crypto infrastructures, with the ambition to support leading players in this transition as early as 2026.

CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION

As part of the event, Jim Dorra, Chief Executive Officer of TRACTIAL, will take part in several panel discussions alongside experts, entrepreneurs, and international Web3 ecosystem players.

These discussions will focus in particular on:

- the evolution of blockchain-based financial infrastructures
- the integration of crypto-assets into the digital economy

ABOUT THE POLYNESIAN ISLANDS CRYPTO SUMMIT (PICS²)

The Polynesian Islands Crypto Summit (PICS²) is an international event dedicated to blockchain technologies, Web3, and digital financial infrastructures, held in French Polynesia.

Its second edition will take place from May 22 to 24, 2026, in Tahiti, with the ambition of positioning the region as an emerging hub for fintech and blockchain technologies in the Pacific.

The summit will bring together entrepreneurs, developers, investors, public institutions, and international financial players through conferences, panels, workshops, and networking sessions.

The event will feature several dedicated areas and formats:

- a Business Village for companies and industry professionals
- conferences and panels bringing together experts, entrepreneurs, and institutions
- a Start-up Arena showcasing emerging blockchain ventures
- demo and workshop spaces open to the public

Key figures for the 2026 edition include:

- more than 5,000 visitors over three days
- over 100 international companies and exhibitors
- more than 40 speakers and industry experts
- three exhibition and conference venues

The summit will also host institutional representatives, regulators, and economic stakeholders from across the Pacific, with delegations expected from several countries in the region.

Beyond its technological dimension, PICS² aims to foster connections between entrepreneurs, investors, and institutions, supporting the development of the Web3 and fintech ecosystem in the Pacific region.

For industry players, the event represents a strategic networking platform, connecting European, Asian, and Oceanian stakeholders around key topics such as blockchain infrastructure, crypto-assets, and next-generation digital finance.
