

PRESS RELEASE

LAWSUIT FILED BY JOHN TEXTOR BEFORE THE LYON COMMERCIAL COURT

Tuesday, July 30, 2026 – 9:30 p.m.

Eagle Football Group and its subsidiary OL SASU (collectively, “OL”) acknowledge receipt of the summons filed with the Lyon Commercial Court, which was served on them today by Mr. John Textor (a former CEO of the Group) and an entity affiliated with him, Eagle Football Holdings LLC, in connection with a hearing scheduled for next September.

John Textor and Eagle Football Holdings LLC are seeking payment of (i) 2.5 million euros allegedly owed under a “management fees” agreement and (ii) 18.4 million euros (including interest, amount to be finalized) allegedly owed in connection with a short-term advance.

OL notes that this legal claim follows the release of the OL group’s debts to John Textor, Eagle Football Holdings Bidco, and their affiliates, which took place on June 26, 2026, concurrently with the sale by Eagle Football Holdings Bidco (in “administration”) of its controlling stake in the Company.

This claim is part of the legal battle that Mr. Textor has been waging for several months against OL, its former and current shareholders, and its new management¹.

OL deplores this umpteenth attempt by its former executive to destabilize the club and will respond through the appropriate legal channels. OL reserves the right to ask the courts to which Mr. Textor has brought his case to hold him liable for damages resulting from his actions and will, in general, take all necessary steps to protect its interests.
