

Monday, 2 March 2009

Nicolas Wertans joins PSA Peugeot Citroën

Nicolas Wertans has joined PSA Peugeot Citroën, effective today. Following an orientation period within the Group, he will be appointed to an executive position with the Peugeot brand, reporting to Jean-Philippe Collin, Chief Executive Officer of Automobiles Peugeot and a member of the PSA Peugeot Citroën Managing Board.

Nicolas Wertans, 40, holds a degree from the Supélec engineering institute and an MBA from INSEAD. Chairman of BMW France since 2006, he was previously head of BMW's fleet sales, based in Munich. He has also held various management positions with the Ford Motor Company in London, Cologne, Zurich and Paris.