InfoVista Appoints Trilogy's Joe Liemandt to Board of Directors

PARIS, France and HERNDON, Virginia—December 16, 2010—InfoVista (Euronext IFV-FR0004031649), global leader of service performance assurance, today announced that at yesterday's Shareholders meeting, Joe Liemandt was appointed to InfoVista's Board of Directors. Liemandt will bring to InfoVista the pioneering and innovative vision that has led Trilogy, the Austin Texas-based software company he founded in 1989 to unparalleled success. U.S.-based, Mr. Liemandt's appointment underscores InfoVista's strategies to continue to expand its global presence and showcase its focus on a business model that fosters innovation.

Mr. Liemandt's leadership skills, expertise, and strong business acumen will provide great value to InfoVista as it continues to meet the service performance needs of its expanding market. He has been featured in Newsweek, Fortune Magazine, Harvard Business Review and Forbes for his innovative business model. Additionally, Mr. Liemandt has been an investor in InfoVista for the past two years, recognizing the future potential InfoVista holds as a fast-growing software company.

Upon appointment, Mr. Liemandt outlined his thoughts on the company's future plans: "As a large shareholder, I am very excited to be joining the Board of Directors. InfoVista's future plans include the necessary ingredients for continuing to build a fast-growing, highly profitable software company and the demonstrated leadership to execute them."

Philippe Ozanian, InfoVista's Chief Executive Officer, who recently relocated to the U.S. from France, stated: "We are excited to welcome Joe Liemandt to our Board of Directors. With 85 percent of our revenues coming from outside France, we saw great value in appointing a U.S. board member."
