InfoVista Cancels 340,000 Shares and Launches New Share Repurchase Program

PARIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Regulatory News:

InfoVista (Euronext: IFV, ISIN: FR0004031649), global leader of service performance assurance, today announced that in December 2010, its Board of Directors decided to cancel 340,000 of its own shares, in order to provide an accretive effect to its shareholders. The number of cancelled shares represents approximately 2% of InfoVista's issued capital. As of January 10, 2011, the number of ordinary shares listed on Euronext Paris was reduced to 17,692,704.

In addition, pursuant to the 17th resolution voted on by the Company's Shareholders during its December 15, 2010 Shareholders' Meeting, the Company launched a new share buyback program that authorizes the repurchase of up to 10% of its issued shares at any time during the program and for a maximum per share price of €6. The shares will be repurchased by an independent financial service provider to allow InfoVista to honour its obligations arising from its warrants and share purchase option programs or to be used as payment for inorganic growth opportunities. Treasury shares not affected by these objectives may be cancelled, subject to legal restrictions.

For additional information, the description of the share repurchase program, published on November 29, 2010, is available in the investor relations section of www.infovista.com.
