Niger: three hostages have been freed

Paris, February 25, 2011

It is with great joy that the AREVA group has learned that Françoise Larribe, spouse of AREVA employee, Daniel Larribe, and Jean-Claude Rakotorilalao and Alex Awando, both employees of VINCI subsidiary, SATOM, have been liberated. They were abducted on September 16th, 2010, in the North of Niger by Al Qaeda in the Islamic Maghreb.

All our thoughts are with Daniel Larribe and the three VINCI group employees who remain in captivity and for whom everyone wishes the same positive outcome as soon as possible.

MORE ABOUT

AREVA supplies solutions for carbon-free power generation. Its expertise and know-how in this field are setting the standard, and its responsible development is anchored in a process of continuous improvement. As the global nuclear industry leader, AREVA's unique integrated offer to utilities covers every stage of the fuel cycle, nuclear reactor design and construction, and related services. The group is also expanding considerably in renewable energies – wind, solar, bioenergies, hydrogen and storage – to be one of the top three in this sector worldwide in 2012. Every day, AREVA's 48,000 employees cultivate the synergies between these two major carbon-free offers, helping to supply safer, cleaner and more economical energy to the greatest number of people.
