

Big C Thailand announces the temporary postponement of the capital increase plan due to the exceptional flooding situation in Thailand

Big C Thailand, a subsidiary of Casino Group announced today the decision of its board of directors to postpone the Extraordinary General Meeting convened to approve the capital increase plan announced on October 20th. This temporary decision is the result of the exceptional flooding situation in Thailand.

The capital increase plan will be subject to the shareholders vote at the earliest practicable date before the end of the year, when the flooding situation will allow it.
