Frédéric Crépin, General Counsel of Vivendi, receives the Gold Trophy for “best legal department in an international company”

Frédéric Crépin, General Counsel of Vivendi, this week received the Gold Trophy for the best legal department in an international company during the 11th edition of the Legal Trophies award ceremony organized on November 29 in Paris.

Since 2002, the Legal Trophies have been the only French corporate awards ceremony bringing together professionals from the different law disciplines, with the support of lawyer associations, the bar association and other professional organizations in France. The Legal Trophies distinguish the work performed by professionals who, thanks to their dedication, inspiration and leadership, are leading the profession to new heights.
