

Continuation of the observation period and conversion of the safeguard procedure into receivership

By decision of May 30, 2013 the Toulouse Court of Commerce has pronounced the continuation of the observation period, the maintain of the procedure bodies appointed by judgement of March 7, 2013 and the conversion of the safeguard procedure into receivership of INDEX MULTIMEDIA. Mr. Vigreux, in his capacity as receiver shall prepare a recovery plan and deposit it at the Court clerk office latest on August 27, 2013.

The Board of Directors has approved the agreement already given by the General Management of the company about the said conversion as of May 22, 2013. Indeed, taken into consideration the evolution of the economic and financial environment of the company since the opening of the safeguard procedure and the business outlook, the management of the company has opted for this conversion into receivership considering that it constitutes the most appropriate legal frame to safeguard activities and jobs.

In the scope of the conversion into receivership, the observation period will be continued until its term on September 7, 2013 and commercial activities will then be maintained. Index Multimedia remains able to fulfil its commercial commitments and to respond to its customers requests.

We shall continue the restructuring process already launched at the company in order to improve our performances and at the same time considering the different options offered by the receivership procedure and which will be disclosed as soon as possible.

The trading of our share on the market remains suspended. The quarterly financial information concerning the third quarter of our financial year will be published on June 14, 2013.
