Match.com increases its stake in Meetic SA from 80.8% to 87.5% and announces planned Public Offer for all outstanding shares

MEETIC (MEET - FR0004063097), leader in the European online dating market, announces today the acquisition by Match.com of the remaining 6,7% stake held by Marc Simoncini in Meetic.

Following this acquisition, Match now owns 87,5% of the capital and 88,6% of the voting rights of Meetic. Mr. Simoncini, who no longer owns, directly or indirectly, any Meetic shares, has resigned effective today from Meetic's board of directors.

Match.com has also announced its intention to launch in the near term a cash simplified public tender offer for all of the outstanding shares of Meetic S.A. at a price of €18.75 per share. The offer price represents a premium of approximately 51% on the closing price of Meetic shares on September 24, 2013.

Match.com has indicated that its intention is to implement a squeeze-out if it holds at least 95% of the capital and voting rights upon completion of the offer. In the event such squeeze-out cannot be implemented, Match.com intends to apply to Euronext Paris for a delisting of the Meetic shares.

About Meetic Group, European online dating leader (www.meetic-corp.com):

Meetic manages online dating services, mainly under the meetic, meetic affinity, match and twoo brands, and markets two highly complementary economic models on the dating market, one based on internet use, the other on mobile phones. From inception, the group has pursued a clear leadership strategy focusing on quality, innovative marketing and perfect technological expertise. Meetic works hard to optimise service quality and to satisfy every possible expectation of its European subscribers.
