
PRESS RELEASE

Liberation of Daniel, Thierry, Marc, and Pierre

Paris, October 29, 2013

Following the declaration of the French President, François Hollande, AREVA is pleased to confirm the liberation of Daniel Larribe, AREVA employee, Thierry Dol, Marc Féret, and Pierre Legran, employees of the Vinci group, who have been held hostage since September 2010.

Luc Oursel, President and CEO of AREVA, said: "This liberation is an immense joy for the families and for all the employees of AREVA. These men have shown extraordinary courage. I would like to very warmly thank all of those who have contributed to their liberation."

Press Office

Julien Duperray
Katherine Berezowskyj
Aurélien Grange
Jérôme Rosso
Alexandre Thébault
T: +33 (0)1 34 96 12 15
press@areva.com

Investors Relations

Marie de Scorbiac
marie.descorbiac@areva.com
T: +33 (0)1 34 96 05 97
Philippine du Repaire
philippine.durepaire@areva.com
T: +33 (0)1 34 96 11 51

MORE ABOUT AREVA

AREVA supplies advanced technology solutions for power generation with less carbon. Its expertise and unwavering insistence on safety, security, transparency and ethics are setting the standard, and its responsible development is anchored in a process of continuous improvement. Ranked first in the global nuclear power industry, AREVA's unique integrated offering to utilities covers every stage of the fuel cycle, nuclear reactor design and construction, and operating services. The group is actively developing its activities in renewable energies – wind, bioenergy, solar and energy storage – to become a European leader in this sector. With these two major offers, AREVA's 46,000 employees are helping to supply ever safer, cleaner and more economical energy to the greatest number of people.