About Viadeo

Viadeo is a key player in the world of professional social networking with 65 million members worldwide. As well as being the leading PSN in both France and China, with 9 million members in France and 25 million in China, Viadeo has experienced exceptional growth since its creation, particularly in francophone nations and emerging markets such as China, Russia, and Africa.

Viadeo allows professionals to connect no matter what sector they work in, what position they hold, or where they are based. Viadeo members enjoy a huge range of opportunities, from finding former colleagues and classmates, connecting with future managers, or recruiting new team members, to interacting with people in your niche, developing your skills, or raising your profile.
