Press release

Axway Strengthens Executive Management Team with the Appointment of Jeanine Banks as EVP, Global Products and Solutions.

Industry Veteran to Lead Axway's Innovation and Growth
Strategy

Paris, 30 June 2015 – Axway (Euronext: AXW.PA), a market leader in governing the flow of data, has appointed Jeanine Banks as Executive Vice President, Global Products and Solutions.

In this newly created position, Ms. Banks will strengthen Axway's innovation and growth strategy and will be responsible for determining the direction and development of Axway's products and solutions.

"I am thrilled to welcome Jeanine to the Axway team and am highly confident that her skills will help us achieve our growth and success goals," said Jean-Marc Lazzari, Chief Executive Officer of Axway. "With her extensive and impressive background, Jeanine will be instrumental in helping us continue to be a global leader in the data governance market, and will be an integral part of Axway's commitment to delivering industry-leading solutions to our customers around the world."

With 17 years of experience, Ms. Banks has held product management, marketing and business positions within technology start-ups and major international companies alike including CA Technologies, Sterling Commerce/IBM and Canon. Most recently, she worked at GE Healthcare as vice president and business manager for Commercial Cloud solutions, and as vice president, Global Product Marketing.

Jeanine Banks will be based in Phoenix (Arizona) with the Group's Executive Management, while managing local teams based worldwide.
