InterRent announces today its opening at Dubai's airport!

InterRent, the low-cost brand of Europcar Group, the European leader in vehicle rental services and a major mobility player, announced today the opening of a new destination: Dubai, extending its presence in the Middle East, after the opening of Oman, Abu Dhabi and Qatar. InterRent will now be able to serve the millions of visitors arriving every year in Dubaï.

With this new opening, InterRent is now covering more than 40 countries and 170 locations throughout the world.

InterRent, whose tagline is "drive, save, enjoy", offers a simple and user friendly rental experience based on its website (www.interrent.com) where customers can make a reservation in three simple steps:

- Date and location of the car rental
- Selection of the vehicle category and any extras
- Payment

Every rental includes 24-hour roadside assistance as well as civil liability insurance covering theft and damages. Customers can also select extras such as a child seat, GPS device or additional driver.

In Dubai, InterRent will offer a wide range of cars to its customers, from the smallest cars to the convenient SUV. Whatever type of car a customer will need they'll find it with InterRent.

Jehan de Thé, InterRent's Group Director declared "I am very proud to enlarge our offer within the Middle East with Dubai, a very appealing destination. As a growing leisure destination with massive demands for car rentals, InterRent will offer an affordable alternative to make sure visitors can save, drive and enjoy!"
