Median Technologies is awarded the 2017 Tech 40 Label and joins EnterNext Tech 40 Index.

Tech 40 Index includes top-performing Tech companies listed on the Euronext.

SOPHIA ANTIPOLIS, France – April 25th, 2017 - Median Technologies (ALMDT:PA), the Imaging Phenomics Company™, today announces that it has been awarded the 2017 Tech 40 Label, and is now included in the EnterNext Tech 40 Index.

The Tech 40 Label is an initiative launched by EnterNext in 2015 and spotlights the 40 top-performing European companies in the Tech sector (i.e., Biotech and Medtech, Cleantech and Technology-Media-Telecom companies) listed on the Euronext markets in Paris, Amsterdam, Brussels and Lisbon.

The Tech 40 Label is awarded each year to the top 40 of the 330 Tech companies listed on the Euronext by a committee of independent European experts based on business, financial, and stock market performance criteria.

Median Technologies is listed on Alternext Euronext Paris since May 2011. Its iBiopsy® platform is revolutionizing personalized medicine through the use of advanced imaging phenomics that enable the detection, diagnosis, and monitoring of disease evolution as well as provide insights into novel drug therapy development and treatment strategies for patients.

The Tech 40 Label denotes Median Technologies as a high potential innovative company among Tech companies, and will enhance its visibility among international investors.
