

Lysogene Announces new Appointments to the Board of Directors

- Cooptation of Dr. Mathieu Simon as new independent Board Director
- Karen Aiach appointed Chair of the Board of Directors

PARIS, France, – 22 May 2019, at 06:00pm CEST – Lysogene (FR0013233475 – LYS), a leading Phase 2/3 biopharmaceutical company specializing in gene therapy technology applied to central nervous system (CNS), today announced new appointments to the Board of Directors.

Dr. Mathieu Simon has been appointed by cooptation as an independent director. A graduate in internal medicine from the Faculty of Medicine of Paris VII, Dr. Simon is Senior Strategic Advisor at Messier Maris & Associés, an international investment bank. He is also an independent Director of Vaximm AG, LNC SA, member of the Supervisory Board of Affimed and non-executive member of Idorsia Board of Directors. Moreover, Dr. Simon is an advisor to the European Commission - Research and Innovation. He previously held positions of Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer of Collectis, CEO of Collectis Therapeutics and CEO of Ectycell; Senior Vice President and Head of Global Pharmaceutical Operations at Pierre Fabre SA, as well as general management and senior corporate roles at Wyeth Pharmaceuticals. He was also Chairman of the Board of Directors of Cellartis AB.

In addition, Karen Aiach, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Lysogene, has been appointed Chair of the Board of Directors. Ms. Aiach succeeds Annette Clancy who held the post of Chair since 2015. Ms. Clancy will remain on the Board as an independent Director.

"It has been a pleasure to chair Lysogene over the past 4 years and help guide the company through its public listing on Euronext and very importantly secure an excellent partnership with Sarepta last year. This partnership provides an opportunity for MPS IIIA patients to receive a potential life altering treatment and sets the Company on a growth trajectory to becoming a leading gene therapy company in Europe," said Annette Clancy.

"We would like to thank Ms. Clancy for her important contribution as Chair of the Board and look forward to continuing to work with her as a director," said Karen Aiach.

"At the same time, we are delighted to welcome Dr. Simon to the Board of Directors, during this period of exciting progress in our pipeline including our ongoing international Phase 3 clinical trial at Lysogene. Dr. Simon brings a wealth of experience and strategic vision to the company."

Lysogene's Board of Directors is now composed exclusively of independent directors, with the exception of Karen Aiach.

About Lysogene
