Buyback programme Reduction of capital by cancellation of treasury shares

Elior Group announces that it has cancelled 4,268,550 of its own shares (representing 2.39% of its share capital), thereby reducing its capital to € 1,740,928.39.

The decision was taken by the board of directors, in accordance with the authorisation given by the combined general meeting of March 22, 2019, pursuant to its 22nd resolution.

Following this cancellation, Elior Group holds directly 183 of its own shares (excluding liquidity contract).

These operations will help strengthen both the growth potential of earnings per share and the financial structure of Elior Group.
