EUROREPAR Car Service pursues and amplifies its international development

- Eurorepar Car Service now counts over 5,000 garages worldwide
- The all-makes garage repair network pursues its international development and opened in Slovakia, Croatia, in the French Islands and in Panama during the last quarter of 2019.

Groupe PSA all-makes garage repair network, recently awarded best independent network (Décision Atelier) in France for the second time in a row, and nominated amongst the « best 2020 retail chains » in its category for its quality of service (Capital magazine), pursues its international development. After Austria in the beginning of the year, it opened in Slovakia, Croatia, in Guadeloupe, the Reunion Island, Martinique, in Panama, during the last quarter of 2019.

With an increased footprint in all the countries where it is present, the network now counts over 5,000 garages in 26 countries, out of which 11 are located outside Europe.

Christophe Musy, Senior Vice-President PSA Aftermarket welcomed « the excellent dynamics of the network everywhere in the world » and underlined that its development « is in line with the ambition to reach over 10,000 garages by 2023 ».

Jean-Christophe Bertrand, the new Senior Vice-President, of the Business Unit, Independent Aftermarket recalled that « joining Eurorepar Car Service is an excellent opportunity, for all-makes garages, to benefit from an international network, our one-stop-shop distribution scheme and complete offer of multi-brand products and from the technical, marketing and logistic support from Groupe PSA, without giving up their independence ».
