

FOCUS HOME INTERACTIVE

Information on the European Commission investigation

PARIS, FRANCE – 9th November 2020 – FOCUS HOME INTERACTIVE (FR0012419307 ALFOC), a leading French video game publisher, announced today that it has information enabling it to estimate that the fine to be imposed by the European Commission will not exceed €3 million.

For the record, Focus Home Interactive received a statement of objections dated 5 April 2019 from the European Commission¹. The investigation was opened on 2 February 2017² into agreements between Valve Corporation, owner of the games' distribution platform Steam, and five video game publishers, including Focus Home Interactive.

Focus Home Interactive fully cooperated with the European Commission.
