accelerates its development with the acquisition of Stream On Studio, long-standing partner of the Group

PARIS, FRANCE – 20 April 2021 – FOCUS HOME INTERACTIVE (FR0012419307 ALFOC), one of the European leaders in the publishing, distribution, and development of video games, today announces the acquisition of the majority of the shares comprising the capital of the company Stream On Studio, paid in cash and in Focus Home Interactive shares.

Stream On, with a team of around twenty talented employees, has been a specialist in shooting games since its creation in 2007 and is the owner of the E.Y.E. Divine Cybermancy license, which immediately enthralled players when it was launched. Led by its three founders and directors Jonathan Cachera, Pierrick Le Nestour and Christophe Longu  p  e, Stream On has been a solid and long-lasting partner of the Group since 2013.

Christophe Nobileau, President of Focus Home Interactive declared: "We are delighted to welcome Stream On Studio to the federation of talents we are building around Focus. This acquisition once again demonstrates our desire to create a strong, integrated group, by attracting new skills capable of taking our Group to a new level and to partner with the best talents. Stream On, with whom we wish to develop production capacities in terms of quality and quantity, has demonstrated its know-how in the development of shooting games which have been acclaimed by the press and players. We are convinced that the teams, supported by Focus' expertise, will actively contribute to the Group's growth."

Pierrick Le Nestour, President of Stream On Studio declares: "We are very happy to now be a part of the Focus Home Interactive group. We share a common vision and our collaboration has always been very successful and fruitful. Our ambition is to offer players ever more ambitious and spectacular titles, and we know that Focus is the ideal partner to achieve our ambitions and for our games to be commercially successful"

Stream On Studio developed the iconic game Space Hulk: Deathwing for Focus which has sold nearly one million copies. The studio is currently working on Necromunda: Hired Gun, a spectacular action game based on one of the flagship licenses of the Warhammer 40,000 universe. The game's release, scheduled for June 1, 2021, has generated a lot of excitement among the press and players alike.

The acquisition was funded using our dedicated M&A bank lines and comes with a long-term executive incentive plan. Stream On will be consolidated in the Focus Home Interactive accounts from April 1, 2021
