ID Logistics completes the acquisition of Colisweb in France

Orgon, January 28, 2022 – 17:45 am – Following the agreement signed on December 13, 2021, ID Logistics (ISIN: FR0010929125, Ticker: IDL), one of the European leaders in contract logistics, is announcing today the completion of the acquisition of 100% of Colisweb, French specialist in the organization of last mile delivery by appointment.

Created in 2013, Colisweb offers a unique, multi-channel software solution that offers an optimized interface between the retailer, the carrier and the end consumer. Thanks to this solution, Colisweb organizes last mile delivery by appointment on D or D + 1, on 2-hour slots, for shipments up to 1,800 kg with the possibility of assembly services, commissioning, or take back packaging and old equipment.

With the acquisition of Colisweb, ID Logistics is strengthening its service offering to retailers and e-merchants by acquiring a last mile delivery platform, a critical step in the supply chain, especially for large or bulky packages.

Eric Hémar, Chairman and CEO of ID Logistics, thanks the ID Logistics teams and his advisors Hogan Lovells in France for the corporate M&A (Jean-Marc Franceschi, Arnaud Deparday), 8Advisory for the financial due diligences (Stéphane Vanbergue, Pierre-David Forterre, Charles Frassaint) and the tax due diligences (Guillaume Rembry, Hubert Christophe, Jérémy Costa), and Gowling for the legal due diligences (Barbara Jouffa, Céline Bey).
