

Sandrine T eran, Eutelsat’s Chief Financial Officer, to step down.

Paris, September 2nd, 2022 – The Chief Financial Officer of Eutelsat Communications (Euronext Paris: ETL), Sandrine T eran, has announced her decision to step down by the end of November in order to pursue other professional endeavours. Sandrine T eran has been the Group’s CFO and a member of the Executive Committee since January 2017. During that time, she has implemented a strategy of financial discipline that has allowed to maximise cashflow generation and has enabled the company to seize new opportunities.

The recruitment process of a successor has already started. In the meantime, Sandrine will remain fully in charge.

Eva Berneke, Eutelsat’s Chief Executive Officer, comments: “I would like to thank Sandrine for all her accomplishments at the helm of the Financial Department of the Group. During the almost 6 years with Eutelsat, Sandrine has made a crucial contribution to the performance of the company. I have enjoyed working with Sandrine since my arrival as Eutelsat’s CEO and relying on her expertise and high professional standards, including very recently in the context of the Eutelsat – OneWeb combination. I wish her all the best in her future professional projects”.
