

PRESS RELEASE

Paris, November 24, 2022

Statement Elior Group

Following recent press and the announcements by Elior Group on 4 July and 23 November with respect to the review of strategic options, Elior Group confirms that one of these options is being discussed with Derichebourg and relates to the potential contribution by Derichebourg of its services division to Elior Group.

There is no certainty with respect to the outcome of these discussions. As indicated on 23 November, Elior Group will communicate on the outcome of this strategic review and the conclusion of any agreement. No further comment will be made until an agreement is reached or the discussion are terminated.
