Anne-Clémence Buttner appointed Data Protection Officer of Vivendi

Vivendi announces the appointment of Anne-Clémence Buttner as Data Protection Officer (DPO). Anne-Clémence Buttner reports to Frédéric Crépin, member of the Management Board and General Counsel of Vivendi.

Anne-Clémence Buttner holds a Master's degree in European Business Law, a Master's degree in Corporate Law and a Master's degree in International Business Law and Management. Prior to joining Vivendi's Legal Department in March 2020, she worked as a lawyer in French and international law firms, specializing in business law.

Anne-Clémence Buttner holds a Data Protection Officer certificate from Sciences Po Executive Education and has extensive expertise in personal data protection law. Her main responsibilities include ensuring the company's compliance with applicable regulations and advising and supporting employees on any projects involving the processing of personal data. She is also the Group's primary point of contact for any questions and issues in this area.

About Vivendi

About Vivendi Since 2014, Vivendi has been building a world-class content, media and communications group. The group owns leading, highly complementary assets in television and movies (Canal+ Group), communications (Havas), magazines (Prisma Media), video games (Gameloft) and live entertainment and ticketing (Vivendi Village). It also owns a global digital content distribution platform (Dailymotion). The combination with Lagardère, subject to the fulfilment of the commitments that Vivendi has proposed to the European Commission, will enable the Group to become the world's third-largest consumer and educational publishing group. Vivendi's various businesses cohesively work together as an integrated industrial group to create greater value. Vivendi is committed to the environment and aims to help mitigate climate change by adopting an approach aligned with the 2015 Paris Agreements. In addition, the group is helping to build more open, inclusive and responsible societies by supporting diverse and inventive creative works, promoting broader access to culture, education and its businesses, and increasing awareness of 21st-century challenges and opportunities. www.vivendi.com
