A solid financial structure

Available cash at June 30, 2024 remains solid at €24.6 million, showing minimal variation compared with December 2023 (€25.9 million), illustrating efficient and controlled management of financial resources. This performance is underpinned by optimized working capital requirements (+€15.6m), partly offsetting the significant investments made over the period (-€14.4m), including the final tranche of the US production site inaugurated on September 12.

Net debt (excluding IFRS 16) stood at €22.4 million. Gross financial debt at June 30, 2024 was down slightly at €64.7 million, compared with €67.1 million at December 31, 2023. Excluding the impact of IFRS 16, gross debt at June 30 stood at €47.0 million, reflecting a more favorable financial position.

At June 30, 2024, Forsee Power had a solid balance sheet with shareholders' equity of €56.3 million, compared with €59.2 million at December 31, 2023.

Strategy and outlook

Over the coming quarters, Forsee Power intends to pursue its strategy of profitable growth by focusing on its key markets in Europe, Asia and the United States, where the Group has just strengthened its production capacity with the recent inauguration of its Columbus, Ohio site.

The expansion of the product range continues with the deployment of new battery systems. The offer also extends to integrated solutions covering after-sales, retrofit and financing options, responding to the diversified needs of customers.

However, due to the postponement of certain orders, the Group is adjusting its annual sales target to between €150 and €160 million.

Nevertheless, Forsee Power is maintaining its target of breakeven adjusted EBITDA for the full year 2024, thanks to rigorous cost management and its margins.
