

Press Release

Paris, 20 January 2009

The Board of Directors of Société Générale, at its meeting on 20 January 2009, reviewed the compensation of the Group's senior management. Consistent with the Group's governance, the Board accepted the proposal of Daniel Bouton, Chairman, and Frédéric Oudéa, Chief Executive Officer, to renounce their variable remuneration compensation for financial year 2008, without regard to the bank's financial performance or capital situation.

Société Générale recalls that the variable remuneration compensation for Daniel Bouton and Philippe Citerne was fixed at zero for financial year 2007.
