Société Générale Board of Directors

- Co-opting a director
- Proposals for nominating directors or renewing tenures

At its meeting held on 20 January 2009, the Board of Directors of Société Générale, following a proposal from the Selection Committee, co-opted Mr. Robert CASTAIGNE as director to replace Mr. Elie COHEN who resigned at the beginning of November 2008, a few weeks before his death.

M. Robert CASTAIGNE is co-opted as an independent director. He will also be a member of the Audit Committee.

His nomination will be subject to ratification by the Annual General Meeting of shareholders, which will take place on 19 May 2009. His period of tenure will end in 2010.

Mr. Robert CASTAIGNE, 62, graduated from the Ecole Centrale in Lille and the Ecole Nationale Supérieure du Pétrole et des Moteurs; he also holds a doctorate in Economics. He has spent his entire career at Total, first working as an engineer and then in various roles. From 1994 to 2008, he was the Chief Financial Officer and a member of Total's Executive Committee.

He is also a director and member of the Audit Committee of Sanofi-Aventis, Vinci and the Compagnie Nationale à Portefeuille.

Moreover, the Board of Directors, following a proposal from the Selection Committee, will suggest that the Annual General Meeting:

- renew the tenures of Mrs. Elisabeth LULIN and Mr. Jean AZEMA, both independent directors;
- nominate Mr. Jean-Bernard LEVY, Chairman of Vivendi's Board of Management, to replace Mr. Patrick RICARD who does not wish to renew his tenure.

Mr. Jean-Bernard LEVY will be nominated as an independent director.

Mr. Jean-Bernard LEVY, 53, alumni of the Ecole Polytechnique and the Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Télécommunications, was nominated as the Chief Executive Officer of Vivendi in 2002. He has been the Chairman of the Board of Management since 2005.

Formerly, he held various posts in ministerial offices; in industry (France Télécom, Matra-Groupe Lagardère); and in finance (Oddo et Cie).
