Access Commerce Joins TM Forum

Cameleon software will be showcased at TM
Forum Management World 2009 Conference 6-8
May in Nice, France

Chicago, Illinois and Toulouse, France, March 25, 2009

Access Commerce (Euronext: 7424), a leading provider of multichannel selling and configurator software, today announced that it has joined the TM Forum, the world's leading industry association focused on improving business effectiveness for service providers and their suppliers. Serving the information, communications and entertainment industries, TM Forum provides practical solutions, guidance and leadership to transform the way that digital services are created, delivered and charged. Access Commerce will work with TM Forum members to help them optimize product management, pricing, selling and ordering processes across a service provider's different sales channels.

Access Commerce has developed the Cameleon product catalog, sales configurator and product lifecycle management (PLM) software solutions that enable communication services providers to improve their marketing and business agility. Cameleon delivers compelling benefits that accelerate time-to-market for product launches and updates, improve the customer experience, grow ARPU and business across channels and reduce costs through consolidation and IT modernization.

"Unrelenting competition, the commoditization of voice business and the current economic climate have combined to highlight the inefficient processes and systems within many service providers," said Kurt Haller, Executive Vice President, Access Commerce. "CSPs are desperate to improve their business agility to preserve margins and grow. Our membership in TM Forum is an important platform for us to communicate our vision to help communication services providers around the world become more agile."

"The TM Forum is very pleased to welcome Access Commerce as a member," said George Greenlee, Vice President, Membership Development, TM Forum. "With their expertise in multichannel selling and configuration, we feel they will make a positive contribution to the work of the TM Forum and our industry."

Access Commerce will exhibit at the TM Forum Management World 2009 Conference being held 6-8 May at the Acropolis Convention Center in Nice, France. To schedule a meeting at this event, contact Grazyna Lorente at +33 5 61 39 78 50 or email info_en@access-commerce.com.
