Orco Property Group website is now enriched with a new "Shareholder corner"

Prior to the Ordinary General Meeting which will take place in Luxembourg on April 30th 2009, Orco Property Group website is now enriched with a new "Shareholder corner", an informative and user-friendly space dedicated to shareholders, available at the following address:

<http://www.orcogroup.com/en/shareholders-corner>.

The Shareholder corner offers the company's latest news and Q&A's giving all necessary data and information needed to better understand Orco Property Group, and to participate in the group's continued evolution in Central Europe. This dedicated space also presents the group's highly active Foundation, particularly in the Czech Republic, and throughout Central Europe.

Orco Property Group is eager to encourage its shareholders to involve themselves in constant dialogue with the group. Shareholders can register to receive the latest news on the company and its ongoing projects by e-mail.

Eager to support an animated quality dialogue with its shareholders, Orco Property Group founder and President Jean-François Ott will answer Internet users on the Boursorama website, on April 22nd.
