

Alcatel-Lucent to host a press conference at Mobile World Congress 2010, Barcelona, Spain

Paris, January 26, 2010 – Alcatel-Lucent (Euronext and NYSE: ALU) will hold a press event on Tuesday February 16, 2010 at the occasion of the Mobile World Congress trade show (being held in Barcelona, Spain, February 15 to 18).

Alcatel-Lucent will make and discuss a series of strategic announcements showing how the company is driving the transformation of service providers' networks and business models to address the explosion in mobile data, and is partnering with third party application and content developers to create new revenue-generating services that leverage the combined strengths of telecom networks and the Web.

The press event will take place at 12.30 PM CET at the Fira, Sala A in Hall 2, and will be hosted by Kenneth Frank, president, Solutions & Marketing for Alcatel-Lucent.

Participants will be able to enjoy a buffet lunch with senior executives before the conference starts and will have the opportunity to ask questions at the end of the presentation.
