

PRESS RELEASE

Technicolor: signature of two committed receivables facilities

Paris, April 27, 2010 – As foreseen in its debt restructuring plan, Technicolor (Euronext Paris: 18453; NYSE: TCH) signed last week two committed receivables facilities.

In France, Technicolor's wholly owned subsidiary, Thomson Telecom SAS, signed a €100 million 3 year factoring facility with GE FactoFrance.

In the U.S., certain of our U.S. subsidiaries signed with Wells Fargo Capital Finance, LLC, part of Wells Fargo & Company (NYSE:WFC), a $125 million 3 year credit facility, secured by the subsidiaries' receivables.

Both of these facilities are subject to the fulfillment of customary conditions precedent prior to being available for advances and borrowings. We expect these facilities along with the Group's cash balances will fulfill the ongoing liquidity needs of the Group following its debt restructuring, which is expected to close in late May.
