

France Telecom and TDC terminate their agreement to combine Orange Switzerland and Sunrise

Renens, Zurich, Paris and Copenhagen, 3 June, 2010: Following the prohibition of the combination of Orange Communication S.A. ("Orange Switzerland") and Sunrise Communications S.A. ("Sunrise") pronounced by the Swiss Competition Commission on April 22nd 2010, France Telecom and TDC have concluded a detailed analysis of their available options and, as a consequence hereof, terminated their agreement concerning the proposed business combination. The appeal filed with the Federal Administrative Court will also be withdrawn.

About TDC

TDC is the leading provider of communications solutions in Denmark with a strong Nordic focus. In the Nordic region TDC has five business units: Business, Operations & Wholesale, Consumer, Nordic and YouSee. About France Telecom

France Telecom, one of the world's leading telecommunications operators, had in 2009 total sales of 45.9 billion euros (10.9 billion euros for the first quarter 2010) and at 31 March 2010, the Group had a customer base of 183.3 million customers in 32 countries. Orange, the Group's single brand for internet, television and mobile services in the majority of countries where the company operates, now covers almost 131 million customers. At 31 March 2010, the Group had 123.7 million mobile customers and 13.5 million broadband internet (ADSL) customers worldwide. Orange is the number three mobile operator and the number two provider of broadband internet services in Europe and, under the brand Orange Business Services, is one of the world leaders in providing telecommunication services to multinational companies.

The Group's strategy, which is characterized by a strong focus on innovation, convergence and effective cost management, aims to establish Orange as an integrated operator and benchmark for new telecommunications services in Europe. Today the Group remains focused on its core activities as a network operator, while working to develop its position in new growth activities. To meet customer expectations, the Group strives to provide products and services that are simple and user-friendly, while maintaining a sustainable and responsible business model that can be adapted to the requirements of a fast-paced and changing eco-system.

France Telecom (NYSE:FTE) is listed on Euronext Paris (compartment A) and on the New York Stock Exchange.
