KKR and Wendel successfully complete the sale of a 9% stake in Legrand

Funds managed by Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. (together with its affiliates, "KKR") and Wendel have successfully completed the joint sale of 23.7 million shares of Legrand at a price of 23.95 euros per share.

Of the 9% of Legrand's share capital sold in this transaction, 3.5% was sold by funds managed by KKR and its affiliates and 5.5% was sold by Wendel. Following this transaction, KKR holds approximately 17.0% of the share capital of Legrand and approximately 24.3% of its voting rights and Wendel holds approximately 19.4% of the share capital of Legrand and approximately 27.8% of its voting rights.

KKR and Wendel remain the controlling shareholders of Legrand, with a combined stake of approximately 36.5% of Legrand's share capital and 52.1% of its voting rights.

There has been no change to the composition of the board as a result of the sale, KKR and Wendel remain core shareholders of Legrand, with double voting rights and a majority position on the board of Legrand.

The transaction should further improve the liquidity of Legrand shares. As a result of the sale, the number of Legrand shares that are publicly held (the free float) has increased by 75% over the past twelve months.
