

Technicolor: The Versailles Court of Appeal confirms the validity of the sauvegarde plan

Paris, 18 November 2010 – The Versailles Court of Appeal today rejected the appeal of the holders of deeply subordinated notes (titres super subordonnés, or TSS) and confirmed the validity of the Technicolor sauvegarde plan (Euronext Paris: TCH; NYSE: TCH), implemented on 26 May 2010.

About Technicolor

Technicolor is home to industry-leading creative and technology professionals committed to the creation, management and delivery of entertainment content to consumers around the world. Propelled by a culture of innovation and underpinned by a dedicated research organization, the company's thriving licensing business possesses an extensive intellectual property portfolio focused on imaging and sound technologies. Serving motion picture, television, and other media clients, the company is a leading provider of high-end visual effects, animation, and postproduction services. In support of network service providers and broadcasters globally, Technicolor ranks among the worlds' leading suppliers of digital content delivery services and home access devices, including set-top boxes and gateways. The company also remains a large physical media service provider, being one of the world's largest film processors and independent manufacturers and distributors of DVDs and Blu-ray™ discs.

Euronext Paris: TCH • NYSE: TCH • www.technicolor.com

Press contacts: +33 1 41 86 53 93
technicolorpresso@technicolor.com

Investor relations: +33 1 41 86 55 95
investor.relations@technicolor.com