

Technicolor Information

Paris (France), 2 May 2012 – Technicolor (Euronext Paris: TCH) has requested that trading in its shares be suspended ahead of a Board of Directors meeting that will take place on Wednesday afternoon. The Board will review a proposal received from an international institution to invest and take a minority stake in Technicolor to support its strategy and its Amplify 2015 roadmap. Technicolor will issue a press release following the Board meeting.
