HERMĒS

FIRST QUARTER2012 FINANCIAL REPORT (THREE MONTHS ENDED 31 MARCH 2012)

SALES GROWTH OF 21.9\% IN THE FIRST QUARTER

First-quarter 2012 consolidated revenue totalled $€ 776.9$ million, a rise of $21.9 \%$ at current exchange rates. At constant exchange rates, revenue increased by $17.6 \%$ - a remarkable performance on the back of very high growth in the same year-ago period.

Sales continued to expand briskly both in by the Group's own stores ( $+17 \%$ at constant exchange rates) and in the wholesales channels ( $+19.7 \%$ at constant exchange rates), which benefited from robust demand.

First-quarter sales by region and sector

(At constant exchange rates, unless otherwise indicated)
In the first quarter, all geographic regions contributed to sales growth, underpinned namely by stores opened or renovated during the second half of 2011:

- Non-Japan Asia (+22\% fuelled by China, Macau and Hong Kong),
- France ( $+14 \%$ ) and the the rest of Europe ( $+27 \%$ ),
- America (up $11 \%$ despite a very high basis of comparison), and Japan, where disaster struck on 11 March 2011, $+8 \%$.

All business sectors are generating growth, underpinned by innovation and the richness of their creation.
In Silk & Textiles and Leatherwork & Saddlery sectors, where strong investments are being made in production capacities, sales registered similar increases of $14 \%$.

Ready-to-wear & Fashion Accessories divisions delivered impressive growth of $20 \%$, driven by the success of fashion accessories and of the latest ready-to-wear collections.

Other Hermès Sectors (Jewellery and Art of Living) registered an excellent first quarter, with sales up 46\%.
In Watches and Tableware, sales increased by $27 \%$. Perfumes, where product lines were enhanced by the introduction of Voyage d'Hermès parfum, advanced by $19 \%$.

Significant events during the first quarter

Exchange rates evolution in the first three months was favourable and produced a positive impact of $€ 28 \mathrm{~m}$ on sales.

During the first quarter, Hermès International continued to buy back shares for its employee share ownership plans. The company bought back 89,482 of its own shares for $€ 21 \mathrm{~m}$. At 31 March, it held $1,476,895$ shares worth a total of $€ 311 \mathrm{~m}$, not including shares covered by a liquidity contract. These shares have been purchased in connection with bonus share plans allocated to employees.

Hermès will pursue its long-term strategy, which is based on maintaining control over its know how and its distribution network. It will continue to invest in developing its production capacity and its distribution network, with the opening or renovation of some fifteen branches.

In 2012 - as in every year since the firm was founded in 1837 - Hermès will take its time, at its own pace, and it will celebrate "The gift of time" as its theme of the year. Time, that singular phenomenon, rules the excellence epitomised in the consummate skills of our saddlers, the meticulous precision of our watchmakers, the virtuosity of our engravers and the dedication to quality of all our craftspeople and designers. Without it, nothing lasting or beautiful could be brought into being.
