

UBISOFT® SETS RELEASE DATES FOR HIT HOLIDAY TITLES

Far Cry® 3, Just Dance® 4, and Rocksmith™ Release Dates Updated

PARIS, France — June 25, 2012 —Today, after a successful showing at E3 that saw the company take home more than 100 awards, Ubisoft® provided updated release dates for some of its biggest titles being launched this holiday season.

Far Cry 3: Far Cry® 3 will be released on November 29 in EMEA and on December 4 in the U.S. Far Cry® 3 will be available for the Xbox 360® video game and entertainment system from Microsoft®, the Sony®PlayStation®3 computer entertainment system and Windows® PC.

Just Dance 4: Just Dance® 4 will be released on October 2 in EMEA and October 9 in the U.S. Just Dance® 4 will be released on the Wii™ system from Nintendo, Microsoft Kinect™ for Xbox 360® and Sony PlayStation® Move for PlayStation® 3 computer entertainment system. The game also will be released on the Wii U™ system from Nintendo during its launch window.

Rocksmith: Rocksmith™, now with new content that allows players to plug in and play with a bass guitar, will be released on September 27 in EMEA for the Xbox 360® video game and entertainment system from Microsoft® and the PlayStation® 3 computer entertainment system. The Windows® PC version will be released in this region on October 18. In the U.S., all versions will be released on October 16 (The bass will be available for existing American Rocksmith™ owners to purchase as DLC on September 4.).

Along with the revised release dates, Ubisoft® also is reaffirming its previously communicated financial guidance for 2012-13.
