Nanterre, September 10, 2012

Issuance by Faurecia of Bonds convertible into and/or exchangeable for new or existing shares (OCEANES) due January 1, 2018, for approximately EUR 220 million, which may be increased up to approximately EUR 250 million

Pricing and final terms (subject to Autorité des marchés financiers visa)

Faurecia ("Faurecia" or the "Company") announced today the launch of an offering of bonds convertible into and/or exchangeable for new or existing shares (OCEANES), due January 1, 2018, (the "Bonds"). The initial nominal amount of EUR 219,999,990.32, represented by 11,293,634 Bonds may be increased up to a maximum nominal amount of EUR 249,999,989.00, corresponding to the issuance of 12,833,675 Bonds, if the over-allotment option of 13.64% granted to the Joint Lead Managers and Joint Bookrunners is exercised in full by no later than September 14, 2012.

This issuance is intended to allow Faurecia to extend the average maturity of its debt, diversify its financing resources, increase its financial flexibility and strengthen its long-term cash liquidity on conditions that are satisfactory. Faurecia will use the proceeds of this issuance for general corporate purposes and, in particular, to finance its industrial investments and Research and Development expenses.

The par value of the Bonds has been set at EUR 19.48, representing an issue premium of approximately 37% over Faurecia's reference share reference price¹ on the regulated market of NYSE Euronext in Paris ("Euronext Paris").

The Bonds will bear interest at an annual nominal rate of 3.25% per annum payable annually in arrear on January 1st of each year (or on the following business day if such date is not a business day), i.e. approximately EUR 0.63 per annum and per Bond. The first coupon, to be paid on January 1, 2013 (or on the following business day if such date is not a business day) will represent interest accrued during the period from and including September 18, 2012, the expected issue date, to December 31, 2012 inclusive, and will be calculated on a pro rata temporis basis, i.e. will amount to approximately EUR 0.18 per Bond. The Bonds will be issued at par and redeemed at par on January 1, 2018. The Bonds will be convertible into and/or exchangeable for new or existing Faurecia shares, at the ratio of one share per Bond, subject to potential future adjustments. The Bonds may be redeemed before maturity at Faurecia's option under certain conditions.

An application will be submitted for the admission to trading of the Bonds on Euronext Paris. The issue date and the settlement and delivery date of the Bonds are expected to be September 18, 2012.

PSA Peugeot-Citroën, Faurecia's main shareholder, and the Company are subject to a 90-day lock-up, subject to certain exceptions.

The Bonds will be offered by way of a public offering in France from September 11, 2012 to September 13, 2012 until 5 pm (Paris time), subject to obtaining the visa of the Autorité des marchés financiers on the prospectus.

¹ The reference price is equal to the volume-weighted average price of Faurecia's shares on Euronext Paris between the opening of trading on September 10, 2012 and the time the final terms of the Bonds were determined.

Neither the offering of the Bonds, nor the issuance or delivery of any shares upon conversion or exchange of the Bonds, has been, and will be, registered with, or cleared by, the Commissione Nazionale per le Società e la Borsa ("CONSOB") pursuant to the Legislative Decree no. 58 of February 24, 1998 as amended (the "Financial Services Act") and CONSOB Regulation no. 11971 of May 14, 1999 as amended (the "Issuers Regulation") and no prospectus has been, or will be, published in the Republic of Italy ("Italy"). Accordingly, the Bonds have not been, and will not be, offered, sold or distributed, directly or indirectly, in Italy in an offer to the public of financial products as defined under Article 1(1)(t) of the Financial Services Act and copies of this press release, the Offering Circular or of any document relating to the offering of the Bonds may not, and will not, be distributed in Italy unless an exemption applies. No person resident or located in Italy other than the original addressees of this press release may rely on this communication, its content or any other document relating to the Bonds.

Article 100-bis of the Financial Services Act affects the transferability of the Bonds in Italy to the extent that any placing of the Bonds is made solely with qualified investors and such Bonds are then systematically resold to non-qualified investors on the secondary market at any time in the twelve (12) months following such placing. Should this occur without the publication of a prospectus in accordance with Italian regulations, and outside of the application of one of the exemptions referred to above, purchasers of Bonds who are acting outside of the course of their business or profession may be entitled, in certain circumstances, to have such purchase declared void and to claim damages from any authorized intermediary at whose premises the Bonds were purchased.
