

PRESS RELEASE

Limited financial impact of the one-off event in Germany

Paris, June 17th, 2013 – As stated on April 22nd 2013, Ingenico's (Euronext: FR0000125346 - ING) business in Germany has been affected by the bankruptcy of a corporate customer due to a service specific to the German market.

Following an exhaustive review, Ingenico announces that this one-off incident is now closed with a 5 million euros impact on profitability in the first half of 2013, which is significantly below the maximum amount previously disclosed.

The Group confirms its full year 2013 guidance of a like-for-like growth greater or equal than 8% and an EBITDA margin exceeding 18.5% on its historical perimeter (excluding Ogone).

Moreover, Ingenico has carried out an audit of the Group's services portfolio in Germany and globally in order to reinforce the procedures of global risk management, notably through an increased number of controls at the launch of new services.

Finally, all the Transactions activities in Europe have been gathered within the same entity led by Peter de Caluwe, Ogone's CEO, who joined the Group after its acquisition by Ingenico.
