

PRESS RELEASE

Suspension of trading of Recylex shares on Tuesday 19 November 2013

Suresnes, 18 November 2013: In order to ensure equal access for the public to information, Recylex SA has asked for trading of the Recylex shares (NYSE Euronext Paris: FR0000120388 - RX) to be suspended on Tuesday 19 November 2013, pending the distribution of a press release concerning the Cour de Cassation's judgment set for this date within the framework of the appeal brought by the liquidators of Metaleurop Nord against the Douai Appeal Court's decision of 19 September 2012 confirming the rejection of their claim for repayment of liabilities in the amount of € 50 million*.

The terms of the relisting of the Recylex shares will be specified in the Company's next press release.

* A document summarizing the development of legal proceedings against Recylex SA can be founded on the Recylex website (www.recylex.fr – News – Legal proceedings schedule).

Recycle, Transform, Enhance

With operations in France, Germany and Belgium, Recylex is a European group specializing in lead and plastics recycling (mainly from automotive and industrial batteries), zinc recycling (from electric arc furnace dust and scrap zinc) and the production of special metals, primarily for the electronics industry.

A key player in the circular economy with long-standing expertise in urban waste recovery, the Group has close to 675 employees in Europe and generated consolidated sales of €471 million in 2012.
