Orange completes the sale of Orange Dominicana to Altice

In accordance with the agreement signed on 26 November 2013 between Orange and Altice, and following the approbation of the relevant authorities, Orange today completed the sale of 100% of Orange Dominicana to Altice.

As a result of this disposal, Orange received 1.42 billion US dollars (or approximately 1.05 billion euros).

This transaction represents a significant new milestone in the Group's asset portfolio optimization strategy that was announced in 2011.
