TRADING IN RECYLEX SHARES TO BE SUSPENDED ON TUESDAY JANUARY 31, 2017

Suresnes, January 30, 2017: the Recylex Group has requested that trading in Recylex shares (FR0000120388 - RX) on the stock market be suspended on Tuesday January 31, 2017, to ensure equal access to information for investors, pending publication of a press release on the ruling by the Douai Court of Appeal concerning 187 claims for damages for dismissal without fair cause initiated in 2010.

Trading in Recylex shares will resume on Wednesday February, 1st at market opening.

The document summarizing developments in proceedings concerning Recylex SA and Metaleurop Nord SAS is available from the Recylex Group's website (www.recylex.fr - News - Legal proceedings schedule).

Regenerating the urban mines

With operations in France, Germany and Belgium, Recylex is a European group specialized in lead and plastics recycling (mainly from automotive and industrial batteries), zinc recycling (from electric arc furnace dust and zinc scrap) and the production of special metals, primarily for the electronics industry.

A key player in the circular economy with long-standing expertise in urban waste recovery, the Group has close to 680 employees in Europe and generated consolidated sales of €385 million in 2015.
