COMMUNIQUÉ DE PRESSE

Rueil Malmaison, May 10 2017

VINCI launches a tap issue of non-dilutive cash-settled convertible bonds for USD 125 million to be fully assimilated to its USD 450 million non-dilutive cash-settled convertible bonds due 2022

VINCI announces today the launch of a tap issue of non-dilutive cash-settled convertible bonds (the "New Bonds") with a nominal amount of USD 125 million.

The New Bonds are to be issued on the same terms (save for the issue price) as the USD 450 million non-dilutive cash-settled convertible bonds due February 16, 2022 issued by Vinci on February 16, 2017 (the "Original Bonds") and, as of 40 days after the settlement date of the New Bonds, shall be fully fungible with and assimilated to the Original Bonds (together, the "Bonds").

Concurrently, Vinci will purchase, in addition to the cash-settled call options over its own shares that were bought with regards to the issue of the Original Bonds, new cash-settled call options (the "New Call Options") over its own shares to hedge its exposure to pay cash amounts upon any potential exercise of conversion rights embedded in the New Bonds. The conversion rights will not result in the issuance of new shares or the delivery of existing shares of Vinci upon conversion.

The net proceeds of the New Bonds offering will be used for general corporate purposes.

The New Bonds will be issued with an issue price between 108.625% and 109.625% of their nominal value (plus accrued interest). The initial pricing for the issue price will be announced before markets open on May 11, 2017 at the latest. The final issue price will be determined following a reference period of 2 consecutive trading days after the placement (from May 11 to May 12, 2017 (the "Reference Period") in order to reflect the share price performance and the evolution of the EUR/USD exchange rate. The final tap price will be announced on May 12, 2017.

The settlement and delivery date of the New Bonds is expected to take place on May 18, 2017.

An application for the admission to trading of the New Bonds on the Open Market (Marché Libre) of Euronext Paris and the Open Market (Freiverkehr) of Deutsche Börse will be made with effect from the settlement and delivery date of the New Bonds.
