

Evolution within Ingenico Group's Executive Committee

Ingenico Group (Euronext: FR0000125346-ING), the global leader in seamless payment, today announced that Nicolas Huss will now be leading its Retail Business Unit, replacing Pierre-Antoine Vacheron who has decided to leave the company for personal reasons.

Nicolas joined Ingenico on July 1st, 2017 as Executive Vice-President, Strategy and Performance. Nicolas brings 28 years of experience in the financial services industry, most recently as the CEO of Visa Europe. Nicolas' in-depth knowledge of the acquiring business and his experience in leading businesses that grow both organically and externally will be a tremendous asset in his new position.

"I want to thank Pierre-Antoine Vacheron for the nine years that he spent with Ingenico, initially as Group CFO before moving to operational responsibilities for the Europe region, then for the ePayments division and finally the Retail Business Unit. His contributions to the transformation of the company have been essential all along", said Philippe Lazare, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.
