APPOINTMENT OF NEW BOARD MEMBERS

Effective immediately, the Faurecia Board of Directors has agreed to appoint Valérie Landon as a new Board member. Ms Landon replaces Amparo Moraleda, following her decision to leave the Faurecia Board.

Faurecia's Board of Directors also acknowledged the appointment of two new members, who will represent Faurecia employees, effective as of November 1, 2017, Daniel Bernardino and Emmanuel Pioche.

Valérie Landon is currently Vice-Chairman Investment Banking & Capital Markets at Credit Suisse in Europe. She is also a Board member at Albioma. She began her career at Air France in 1985 before joining Credit Suisse in 1990 as an Investment Banker. She assumed increased responsibilities with Credit Suisse such as Head of Investment Banking for France, Belgium and Luxembourg.

Daniel Bernardino is a logistics specialist in charge of continuous improvement within logistics at Faurecia Palmela in Portugal. He joined the Group in 1994 as a logistics team leader. He holds staff-representation responsibilities since 1997 and has been a member of the European works council for 14 years.

Emmanuel Pioche is a project leader within the Metals R&D department at Faurecia Brières in France. He joined the Group in 1995 as a prototypist at the Brières site. He holds staff-representation responsibilities since 1999.

Michel de Rosen, Chairman of Faurecia's Board of Directors: "The Board extends a warm welcome to its three new members. We express our deepest thanks to Amparo Moraleda, who will take other responsibilities. Throughout her mandate, Amparo made a precious contribution to the work of the board and its committees."
